A piece of paper with text written in German. The text appears to be a letter, possibly discussing some form of cooperation or partnership, with references to various entities and locations. However, without proper translation, the exact content is unclear. The layout includes a mix of paragraphs and possibly a table or diagram, indicating a structured approach to the communication.
KhimaronProbes stein de
Bek de Breming mit

[Image of a page with text and graphics]